Verbotonal method is bases for work in rehabilitation and educational procedures at SUVAG. It includes specific verbotonal rehabilitation and educational procedures, verbotonal electroacoustic devices and specialized equipment and movement and musical stimulation (Bakota et al., 2022).

Conclusion

Through its collections, the SUVAG Polyclinic Library supports professional, scientific-teaching and research work of the institution's employees by combining:

- printed and digital sources published by SUVAG Polyclinic
- other sources available in the library
- e-sources procured for scientific and academic institutions in Croatia

In recent years, the library offers more and more resources online and services can be obtained remotely.
